A SPLENDID TREAT .- Yesterday evening, just about the time the labors of the day were closing we received from Mr. Henry Brengle. 129 King s reet, our usual angual treat, consisttig of two freez rs-strawberry and vapills-of rees, well flevered ice cream, together with an ample supply of truit, pound and jelly cake. his typedy conn cted with the office partock of full and plenty with the relish characteristic of such ceasions, and many were the encomiums passed upon the quan y of both the cream and cake. Mr. Brengie's establishment has been an institution in this section of country so long that it is a most a work of supererogation to at tempt to gain for it any more potortety. The fathers of the present generation of young people who now sit in merry glee around the tables in his saloon partaking of the cho er delicacies he propares, when small children, were wont to invest their half dimes in the same manner at the same place, and in the good old ante bellum days made mary an impromptu meal on the notable pies made there, the reputation of which have in no way deterioted for over quartor a contury.

A PLEASANT FAMILY REUNION. - Mr. Rich and Rudy, an old and respected onizen, assembled around him on Wednesday night last at his residence, on Fairfex street, his large fami ly of sons, daughters, grand children and great grand children, in social reunion, it being the consion of his eightieth birthday. The affair, which was a most pleasant one, must have been very gratifying to the head of such a numerous istudy, all of whom, together with a large num ber at friends in the community where Mr. Rudd has fived so long, hope he may live to cijey many more such happy rennions. Mr. Ruad was norn in Nottingham, England, and came to this city in 1806, where he has resided ever since. He married in 1821, and as a result of this union seven children were bern unto him, all of whom are now living except one. PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that, as required by law, the Auditor is now engaged in preparing deeds of conveyance and certificates of sale for delivery to the purcha-ers of real estate sold for non payment of taxes at the tax sale which commenced in the city of Alix indria on Wednesday, the 18th day of June, 1879, and not sub-equently redeemed.

And for further information the following resolution, adopted by the City Council on Tues-day the 26th day of July, 1881, and sections 27, 30, 31 and 32 of the amended charter of the city of Alexandria, approved January 25, 1879, and published:

nesolved by the City Council of Alexandris. has the Auditor be, and is hereby, directed to execute a deed conveying to the purchaser the real estate sold at the tax sale commenced June

18 1879, and not redeemed [Sections 27, 30, 31 and 32 Amended Charter.] [Sections 27, 80, 31 and 32 Amended Ubarter.]
If at any such sale, no bid be made for any such parcel of land, or such bid shall not be equal to the tax or asserment, with interest and charges, then the same shall be struck off to the city. On such sale the collector or collectors that elecute to the city a certificate of sale in which the property purchased that be described and the approach amount of tax or as essment. and the aggregate amount of tax or as essment, with charges and expenses specified and shall deposite such cartificate with the Auditor.

The purchaser of any real esta te sold for taxes and not redeemed, shall, after the expiration of And not received, shall, after the expiration of two years from the sale, obtain from the City Auditor a deed conveying the same wherein shall be set forth what appears in his office in relation to the sale. When the purchaser has assigned the henceft of his purchase, the deed may, with his assent, evided by his joining therein, or by a writing annexed thereto, be executed to his assigned if the cuted to his assigned. If the purchaser shall have died, his heirs or assigns may move the Court of Hustings of said city to order the Auditor to execute a deed to such beirs or assigns. When the purchaser of any real estate sold for taxes, his heirs or assigns, shall obtain a deed therefor, and within sixty days from the date of such deed shall have caused the same to be re-corded, such estate shall stand vested in the grantee in such deed as was vested in the party assessed with the taxes, on account whereof the sale was made, at the commencement of the year for which the said taxes were assessed, notwithstanding any irregularity in the proceedings under which the said grantee claims title, unless such irregularity appear on the face of the proceedings; and if it be alleged that the taxes, for the nor-payment of which the sale was made, were not in arrear, the party making such allegation must establish the truth thereof by proving that the taxes were paid.

In case any real estate struck off to the city. as herein before provided, shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the City Auditor shall, within sixty days after the expiration of two years from the sale cause to be recorded such cer-tificates of sale, with his oath that the same has not been redeemed, and thereupon the said cor-poration or their assigns, shall acquire an absolute title to the same in fee. The said certificate may be acknowledged, or proved and recorded in the same manner that deeds are recorded; and the said ceruficate or the record thereof, or a copy of said record, duly authenticated, shall, in all courts and places, be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated, and of the regularity and correctness of such sale, and of all proceed-ings prior thereto.

As persons whose real estate was sold on June 18, 1879, have until THUKSDAY, the 18th day of August, 1881, (see section 31, above quoted) to redeem their property, it is earnestly hoped that they will avail themselves of this privilege, and thereby prevent the Auditor from being required to perform an act so unpleasant to him.
